First a quick note.

This was a post I shared on my personal Facebook page. Likly won't put it on either 260Chat or Transparent Payson. But, a sincere thank you.

The post:

"I just love people sometimes. I have taken on a large political process. Not my goal, and had you asked a year ago, I would have said "no." My day job can be brutal enough. This political task can be brutal.

Then folks make a point to reach out to you. Random phone calls, or notes. Each encouraging you, backing the effort both large and small. That makes it all worthwhile. The unsolicited support. The people that are involved and the people that want to get involved.

Today I had a gentleman who has been married 60 years call me. He wants to share some relevant local history with me. He too is interested in preserving the process. He has likely forgotten more in the last fifty years than I have learned in my first fifty years. A real treasure to speak with. That he is willing to take his time, reach out, share his knowledge with me, give me his trust; that makes the process all worthwhile. I am so looking forward to meeting him.

I suspect I get to meet a lot more good people along the way."

So again, thank you! A true privilege so many are involved.

Quick rundown on the week.

Met with the Roundup for 1.5 hours. Good meeting. Not for an article, just a get together.

Mr. Lane Moore in town - Will address in a bit via 260Chat

250+ Facebook likes, lots of shares.

40 Subscribers on this email list.

Billboard and Bumper Stickers in the works.

Invited the entire Council to lunch and learn - A lesson in "transparency?"

Meeting with a possible attorney for the group on Saturday.

It will be a busy website weekend. Lots of updates.

Busy, just not much visible. The weather was not kind on the circulators, and we need more folks to fill slots / positions. Anybody who is registered can be a circulator. This first public week seems a lot was learned? Confident Paul, Jim and others will share at the meeting.

Thank you again.

Upcoming Events:

Meeting scheduled for Sunday, 6:00 pm. Feel free to invite / bring others who would like to become involved. The more the merrier.

We need more circulators please!

Also, if you have a business and we can post a flyer, let us know.

Thank you again for all your help.

Our current needs are money and circulators!

There will be many posts on 260Chat and Transparent Payson in the next day or so updating all information.
